Wedding Ceremony

To celebrate your arrival you will find a deluxe fruit basket in your room. On the day of your ceremony, two members of our bridal party will visit your villa to collect your wedding rings. In the afternoon, the bridesmaid will pick up the bride from the villa and escort her to the Spa for make-up. Once the groom is ready, the best man will pick him up and escort him to selected venue. The traditional Maldivian ceremony is held on a sandy beach with homemade wedding decorations; folk Bodu Beru drummers will march along with the bride announcing her arrival while the groom waits with the Head of Ceremonies. The bride will then make her way to her future husband along a pathway of palm leaves. Together they walk hand in hand towards the Master of Ceremonies to begin the rest of their lives. The ceremony begins with the exchange of vows and rings. The couple then signs the Wedding Certificate of Renewal of Vows. The celebrations carries on with the cutting of the wedding cake and flowing champagne. The couple celebrates with wine on the beach during a romantic candlelit dinner. Upon returning to their room, they will find a special turndown with a luxurious flower bed decoration. The next day, breakfast is served in the villa.
